TESTER 1

Patricia Mason, 64,
shop assistant, Skipton, North Yorkshire

Patricia says:
'I've never had a phone reading before, so I'm interested to see what Rosa can pick up.'

The reading:

'I'm picking up a bronze bangle that you sometimes wear to ease aches in your arm. You have two children who are dissimilar. Your son, Bob, has emigrated a few times. Don't rule out the possibility that he'll go again. Your other son is much quieter and happily settled in the UK.'

'Now I can see a little girl in spirit, and she's with someone called Theresa.'

'You have an affinity with birds and you enjoy gardening. I also sense you're from a strong bloodline of Gypsies, from Ireland or Eastern Europe.'

'The angels are telling me you should continue to wear your hair long, because it gives you confidence.'

Patricia's verdict:

'The bangle I wear is made of copper and it helps the aches in my wrist. My youngest son is Rob, which sounds similar to Bob, and he used to live in Australia. He has no plans to move abroad again, but I wouldn't be surprised if he did. He and my other son, Alan, are like chalk and cheese.'

Patricia

'The little girl must be the baby I miscarried before my sons were born, but I don't know who Theresa is.'

'I do love nature and I'm a keen gardener. I didn't know where my family originated from, but research carried out after the reading showed my grandad was born in Ireland!'

'It's true that my long hair gives me confidence - I'd never get it chopped off! It's incredible that Rosa picked up on my long hair, as she had no idea what I look like.'

Rating: 'I was impressed, so I'm giving Rosa a 10!'

TESTER 2

Deborah Edwards, 41, full-time mum, Basildon, Essex

Deborah says:
'I'm hoping Rosa can tell me what the future has in store, as I have a few worries on my mind.'

The reading:

'You'll be buying a new car shortly, and your son will be starting school soon. Despite your concerns, he'll settle into it.'

'Money is tight, but the spirits are telling me that there's a job coming up at the same school, which you'll get if you apply for it.'

'Your mum's knee is playing up, but it's nothing serious, and I'm being told that your daughter's test results are about to be sent abroad.'

'Your mum and dad are moving house within the next eight months to a place beside the sea, and I also think you'll be moving in about 18 months' time.'

Deborah's verdict:

'Rosa's right - I am thinking of buying a new car. My four-year-old son, Tom, is starting school soon and I've been worried about how he'll cope, but Rosa has put my mind at ease. I'd planned to apply for a job as a dinner lady there, so I'm glad I'll be in with a good chance of getting it.'

Deborah

'My mum, Jean, does have a bad knee. She and my dad, David, are looking for a house by the sea, and I'd like to move at some point, too.'

'My daughter, Katie, nine, had leukaemia but has thankfully gone into remission so I think they're the results Rosa is referring to. Maybe her doctors are going to use her medical notes to help other patients abroad.'

Rating: 'A great reading. I'm giving it a nine!'
